

Shannon Burwash Memorial Award for Equine & Agricultural Studies

Established to honour the legacy of Shannon's love for the horse and extensive involvement in the Quarter Horse industry. Shannon was an active director and treasurer for both the Quarter Horse Association of Alberta and the Canadian Quarter Horse Association, and was an Alberta director for the American Quarter Horse Association. Her involvement also extended to Equine Canada committees.

DEADLINE: This award is not available until 2015.

VALUE: Minimum $2,000.

CONDITIONS: For students (Canadian citizens or permanent residents) in any field of study with emphasis on the horse, agriculture, business, or equine veterinary medicine at an accredited Canadian post-secondary institution. This award is for well-rounded Canadian students enrolled in full-time studies with good academic achievement who have exhibited leadership and volunteerism in school and the community. Preference will be given to students with a rural background and/or participation in the horse industry who are pursuing a career in agriculture, agri-business or equine-oriented studies. Financial need will also be considered.

APPLY TO: Application form forthcoming.
